

Oxford Hungarian Society

Hilary Term 2012

All meetings, except those on 3 and 24 February, will be held in the MacGregor Room, Oriel College

Friday 20 January, 8pm

The Match of the Century

A film of the famous football match between England and Hungary at Wembley in 1953, which Hungary won 6-3, thereby inflicting England's first ever home defeat. Hungarian captain Ferenc Puskás later wrote: 'No victory gave me greater pleasure [...] We had given the old masters a lesson.' Accompanied by drinks.

Friday 27 January, 8pm

Péter Bajomi-Lázár

From Political Propaganda to Political Marketing – and Back.
Changing Patterns of Media Politics in Hungary, 1991-2011

Péter is a senior research fellow with Media and Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe, an ERC project based at the OU Dept of Politics and International Relations (2009–13), on leave from his chair at Budapest Business School, and editor of the Hungarian media studies quarterly Médiakutató.

Friday 3 February, 8pm

N.B. venue: Harris Theatre, Oriel College

Filmshow: Chamgeon (2008)

directed by Krisztina Goda (with English subtitles)

Friday 10 February, 8pm

Robin McConnachie

Hungary and the New Europe

With the euro potentially on the verge of collapse, what will be Hungary's place in the new political and economic order emerging from Paris, Frankfurt and Berlin? Robin has been a civil servant and banker (both investment and central) and now runs a business advising governments on international financial issues.

Friday 17 February, 8pm

Tibor Zsuppán

'This is Slavery... and the Blackening of the Country's Reputation':
The Desperation of the Székely Maidservant, 1865-75

Tibor is a retired historian, formerly at the University of St Andrews. He will talk about the scandal of Transylvanian girls sold into slavery from a supposedly liberal Hungary.

Friday 24 February, 6pm

N.B. time and venue: at the University Club, Mansfield Road

To celebrate 25 years of the Society:

Supper followed by Kati Evans looking back on the history of the Society

PLEASE SEE SEPARATE REGISTRATION SHEET – TO BE RETURNED BY JANUARY 16!

Friday 2 March, 8pm

Retranslating Pilinszky

An evening of poetry by Clive Wilmer and George Gömöri to introduce Passio, their recently published pamphlet of Pilinszky translations (Worple Press, 2011).

*The OXFORD HUNGARIAN SOCIETY exists for all those interested in matters Hungarian. Please keep this programme and show it to anyone else who might like to attend.
